

ECSTASY
By Richard Murray

The love of God caresses me and dresses me in ecstasy
It's true, it's oh so true
The awe of God impresses me and blesses me incredibly with you, only in you

Lord, in your arms a thousand charms deliver me from every harm
It's true, it's oh so true
Lord, your sweetness brings completeness leaving me in tender meekness
With you, only in you

CHORUS

*So come join the dance
The Lord's romance
A honeymoon for two
A lover's leap into the deep
All things are made brand new
All things are made brand new*

The lightness of your being shines the healing of believing
Yes, it's true, it's oh so true
A billion beams of glory gleams fulfill my each and every dream
With you, only in you

The memory of every delivery of your grace to me
It's true, it's oh so true
The mystery of love divine is so sublime because it's mine
With you, only in you

CHORUS

The essence of your presence leaves me oh so effervescent
Yes, it's true, it's oh so true
Your attitude of plenitude excites my each and every mood
With you, only in you

Your bride has come, the only one who helps give birth to all your sons
It's true, it's oh so true
Your goodness overtakes us, overcomes us, overruns us
Til the earth returns to you
Your goodness overtakes us, overcomes us, overruns us
Til the earth returns to you, until the earth returns in you
